These are a brand new product that just recently came out from Coloplast. They are much more comfortable to insert than the old type straight tip catheter, They are called, Speedi-Cath Flex Tip Coude, 14FR catheter, If you have experienced dis comfort in the past while inserting your catheter, these are the ones for you. You may see a duplicate posting for these, as I was not able to post the pictures for my last posting. They come in a box of thirty, each one wrapped individually, and the nice feature about them, is that they fir right into your pocked, come pre-lubed.
